AUTUMN 2 - WEEK 2

WHAT HAVE WE BEEN UP TO?

This week we have been celebrating World Nursery Rhyme Week, enjoying some of our favourite rhymes with a variety of fun activities both indoors and outdoors. The children loved getting creative with big floor drawings, decorating medals, and building walls for Humpty Dumpty. Outdoor fun included water play with pipes for Incy Wincy Spider, sparking lots of curiosity and laughter!

On Tuesday, we reflected on Remembrance Day with our own poppy activities. Some of the children watched a touching CBeebies video that provides a gentle introduction to the day, and it was wonderful to hear them sharing their thoughts and understanding of 'Poppy Day.'

On Wednesday, the children had an energetic basketball session with Little All Sports and Lisa, full of fun, teamwork, and lots of movement!

OUTDOOR LEARNING

This week, the children enjoyed a wide range of creative outdoor activities inspired by favourite stories and songs. They explored baking gingerbread men, building houses from straw, sticks, and bricks, making spiders with conkers and pipe cleaners, and floating boats in water play. Along the way, they practiced measuring, counting, problem-solving, and teamwork, while engaging in imaginative and active play. It has been a fun-filled week of exploration, creativity, and learning outdoors!
